CODE OF CONDUCT

EMSA West's Code of Conduct is to establish a clear set of guidelines for coaches, players, and parents/guardians. The primary goal is to help ensure that soccer is a fun, positive and enjoyable experiences for all participants. Our Code of Conduct is based on the concept of fair play, defined by four basic and fundamental principles:

1. Respect for the rules;
2. Respect for the referees and their decisions;
3. Respect for all participants; including my child, their team-mates, team parents, our coaches and the players, coaches and parents of the opposing team; and
4. Self-respect by maintain self-control, civility as well as a respectful and positive demeanor at all times.

In submitting this registration for my child, I acknowledge that I am subject to the EMSA West's Code of Conduct as well as the EMSA Rules and Regulations. I also acknowledge and agrees that (1) My child plays soccer for his or her benefit, not mine; (2) I will never question the referee's decisions.  I agree to the terms of the Parent Agreement Outdoor (Parent Agreement Outdoor)
